Speick Woman Facial Tonic

Clarifying facial tonic

Speick woman facial tonic is a mild cleanser, which is effective right to the pores. The product supports, revitalises and stimulates the natural functions of the skin.

For cleansing purposes spray Speick Body facial tonic on to a cotton wool pad and dab on the face and neck. In order to tone the skin, simply spray Speick Body facial tonic directly onto the area required before massaging in using gentle motions.

Speick woman facial tonic contains witch hazel water, sugar beet extract, plant-based glycerine, the active camomile ingredient Bisabolol and an extract from the alpine plant Speick, taken from biologically controlled wild cultures. Speick works to create a harmonious balance in the skin.

The product contains no artificial colourings, animal-based ingredients or preservatives. Speick Body facial tonic contains aromatic properties derived from pure essential oils and complies fully with the "BDIH requirements for certified natural cosmetics".

Tip: For cleansing purposes spray the facial tonic onto a cotton wool pad and dab on the face and neck. In order to tone the skin, simply spray Speick woman facial tonic directly onto the area required before massaging in using gentle motions.
